Profile

Prior to starting pupillage, Adam worked for two national law firms in the north west of England. Whilst working at these firms, Adam undertook advocacy in various pre-action and interlocutory hearings, often against experienced Counsel.

Adam graduated from Liverpool John Moores University in 2016 with an LLB and studied the Bar at Manchester Metropolitan University before being called to the Bar in 2018 by Gray's Inn. Whilst at university, Adam was a receipt of the LJMU Community Excellence Scholarship.

During his studies, Adam marshalled in both the Court of Appeal and the Family Division of the High Court where he was able to observe complex proceedings including one matter which involved extensive use of medical evidence in a fact-finding hearing before Mr. Justice Hayden.

Outside of work Adam is an enthusiastic runner and enjoys going to live music concerts and the theatre with friends and family. He's also a regular visitor to Old Trafford where he enjoys watching Manchester United in action!
