Complaints Procedure

1. Our aim is to give you a good service at all times. However, if you have a complaint you are invited to let us know as soon as possible. It is not necessary to involve solicitors in order to make your complaint but you are free to do so should you wish.
 2. Chambers conforms to the same time limits adhered to by the Legal Ombudsman (LeO). Complaints will be considered under the Chambers Complaints Policy when made no later than six years from the act or omission or three years from when the complainant should reasonably have known there was cause for complaint, unless, in the absolute discretion of the Chief Executive this time limit is waived.
 3. Any complaint to the LeO should be made within 6 months of receiving the final response to your complaint from your barrister or their chambers (as long as the response tells you about your right to complain to the Ombudsman and the six month time limit). A complaint to the LeO must also not be made more than 6 years after the problem arising, and not more than 3 years after you become aware of the problem.
 4. It should be noted that it may not always be possible to investigate a complaint brought by a someone who is not a client of chambers. This is because the ability of Chambers to satisfactorily investigate and resolve such matters is limited and complaints of this nature are often better suited to the disciplinary processes maintained by the Bar Standards Board. Therefore, Chambers will make an initial assessment of the complaint and, if they feel that the issues raised cannot be satisfactorily resolved through the Chambers complaints process, they will refer the complainant to the Bar Standards Board.

Complaints Made by Telephone

5. You should make your complaint in writing (preferably by e-mail), and follow the procedure in paragraph 7 below. However, if you would rather speak initially on the telephone about your complaint, in order to seek an informal resolution, or because you feel you may need help in formulating it then please send an email to Martin Griffiths, our Risk & Compliance Advisor at martin.griffiths@redbagconsulting.co.uk. He will make contact with you to arrange a time when you can speak on the phone. He will make a note of the details of your complaint and what you would like to have done about it. Your concerns will then be informally discussed with an aim to resolve them. If the matter is resolved the outcome will be recorded. We will check that you are satisfied with the outcome and record that you are satisfied. You may also wish to record the outcome of the telephone discussion in writing.
6. If your complaint is not resolved on the telephone you will be invited to write to us about it so it can be investigated
